Day Trips: February - May 2015

IKEA

It's not just furniture! The IKEA concept started with the idea of providing a range of affordable home products - from kitchen to bathroom to bedroom to living room to family room. IKEA combines function, quality, design and value while keeping sustainability in mind. IKEA's aim is to help more people live a better life at home. Enjoy lunch at the IKEA Cafeteria. Among the Swedish-style dishes and local specials on the menu you'll also find healthy, organic and vegetarian options. Browse the great range of meals, snacks, drinks and more at the IKEA Swedish Food Market.

Snow Tubing

Whether you are 5 or 95, the spirit of snow tubing strikes a chord in the child in all of us! Enjoy sliding down one of the many tubing lanes at Whitetail Resort. You can also link up with friends and enjoy the ride together. If you want a break from tubing, you can enjoy a snack near the indoor fireplace or by the fire pit on the outdoor patio. Snow tubing is more fun with friends!

National Guard Memorial Museum

The National Guard Memorial Museum (DC) is the first and only national museum dedicated to telling the story of the National Guard. The museum covers over 375 years of Guard history, beginning with the first muster in 1636 and ending with the current foreign and domestic missions that Guardsmen carry out today. Uniforms, firearms, battle gear and other artifacts are featured throughout the exhibit space. The museum concludes with the newly renovated 9/11 Era Gallery, which focuses on how the National Guard has transformed from a strategic reserve into an operational force since the terrorist attacks in 2001.

Hampton National Historic Site

Hampton Mansion (Towson) was the largest private home in America when it was completed in 1790 and today is considered to be one of the finest examples of Georgian architecture in the U.S. The grand mansion stands as a centerpiece amid formal gardens, rolling, hills and agricultural fields. Each room of the mansion represents a key era of U.S. history. Hampton's grounds offer a rare example of Victorian-era landscape design. We will tour the mansion and the farm. (Note: there are 27 steps to access the second floor of the mansion.)
